2. Insights

Insight:

In order to go for high pay, it might be better to seek work in California, Rhode Island, or Virginia.

Insight:

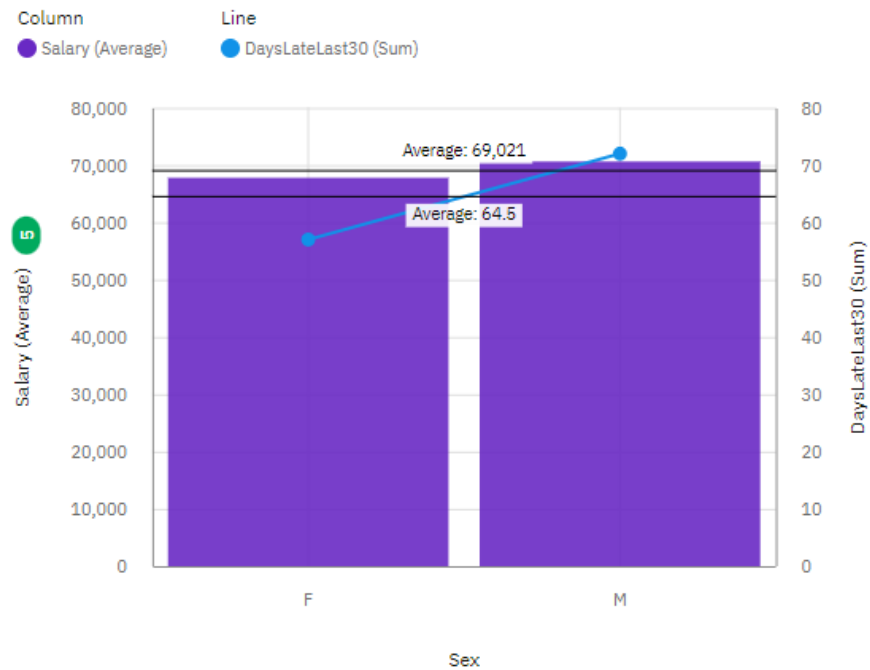

The positions where most people work are Production Technician and Area Sales Manager

Insight:

Naturally the highest-paid positions are the CEOs and the Presidents.

DaysLateLast30 and Salary by Sex

Insight:

Men come late way more often than women, while women are doing well to stay under the average number of late days. There is still pay disparity, as women get paid well below the average salary, and much less than men.

Salary by RecruitmentSource and Department

Insight:

People who were recruited through Indeed have generally been paid higher salaries

Insight:

For some weird reason, the average salary for a person with a performance score of needs improvement is more than that of someone who has a fully meet score

Insight:

Satisfied employees seldom tend to come late, and are generally paid more than employees who are unsatisfied. This might be due to a disparity in what they expected in terms of salary.

Salary by EmpSatisfaction colored by RaceDesc

RaceDesc

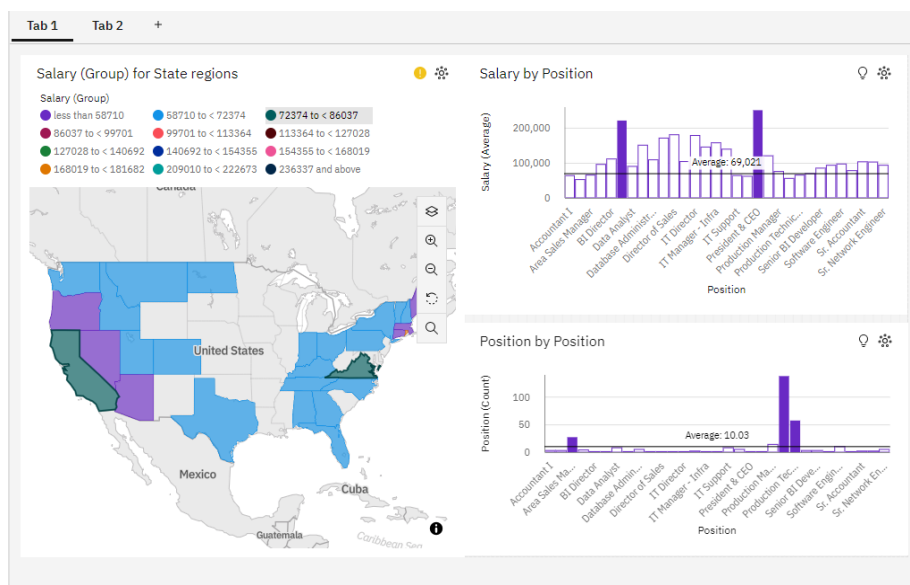

- American Indian or Alaska Native
- Asian
- Black or African American
- Hispanic
- Two or more races
- White

Insight:

Extremely satisfied African Americans are paid the most, followed by fairly satisfied Hispanics.
